Nursing students will be required to pay an indexing fee of Ksh 9550 (nine thousand five hundred and fifty only) payable to the university student account upon admission.

You will be required to abide by the rules and regulations as stipulated in the Student Handbook and the relevant Bulletin.

Boarding facilities are available for interested students at a fee as stipulated in the fee structure. It is the obligation of the student to come with his/her personal effects including bedding, blankets, bed sheets, pillow and pillowcase. A mattress may be purchased at the University Bookstore here.

Married students who plan to come with their families must have special arrangements, before hand with the Dean of Students, University of Eastern Africa, Baraton, P. O. Box 2500, Eldoret.

When you report on campus, you will be required to do a full medical checkup at the University Hospital at a cost of Ksh 2,500 (Two thousand five hundred shillings only).

We look forward to seeing you here as a student and trust that you will find your studies enjoyable and fulfilling in a Christian environment.

Stay Home, Stay Safe.

Yours Faithfully,

ELIZABETH METTO.
